Dear Annie

Welcome to our July newsletter.

In this edition, we are focusing on training courses and coaching services. We have added a range of new courses for Support Workers, Health Care Assistants and Nurses. Our new courses are available on Saturdays and weekends to avoid as much disruption to your working week. See our Immunisation and Venepuncture/Phlebotomy courses for Summer and Autumn. Book now to avoid disappointment. We are currently developing online training and this should be available in August 2011.

We are also reporting on our international work. We are currently working in Singapore, Kuala Lumpur and Australia. We plan further expansion. Watch this space.

We hope you find this useful, and look forward to hearing from you. If you are interested in any consultancy work please contact us.

Down Under

Annie has returned from Australia after 3 successful speaking engagements. Annie spoke at the Case Management Society of Australia's conference in September and at the Australian General Practice Network in Melbourne followed by a joint venture between La Trobe Primary Health Care and Monash University. Annie's talk was entitled 'Daring to be Different' and she spoke about the Role of the Nurse Practitioner, Collaborative Practice and Nurse Led Urgent Care and shared her expertise in Primary Care. The presentations are available by request and contacting us. Annie returned to Brisbane in April to provide case management training for Health Professionals. It was a great success and further training is planned.

Online training courses

Our online training is currently being developed. It is scheduled to be up and running in August 2011. Please do get in touch if you require any further information and we will keep you updated on progress. Find out more by visiting the website: www.anniebarr.com or email enquiries@anniebarr.com

Coaching

Do you ever wish you could change? Are you stuck in a rut? Do you ever wish you had someone to talk clinical issues with? Then coaching is for you. Whatever your area of expertise in nursing, medicine, or your career in general. Then we can help. We will help you to find the solutions and answers in a non-threatening way. We are here to listen and provide a structured session that will produce results.

We are so confident that you will find our coaching produces results we are giving away a free 30min consultation to all new clients.

Long Term Conditions and Care of Older People

Given the recent reports regarding caring for older people there is a need to improve care. Our courses teach Nurses, Health Care Assistants and Support Workers the principles of high quality person-centered care. We are passionate about what we do and we work with people who want to make a difference and who want to improve care. Let us help you to provide the care our patients deserve.

Courses include:

- Case management - proactive management identifying the complex needs of those who are high risk
- Care coordination - integrated care pathways and partnership working
- Disease management - specified training in chronic disease management which delivers effective, efficient care and self management support
- Clinical skills - head-to-toe assessment to identify changes in a patient's condition.

Teaching these principles above can lead to significant improvements in effective and efficient care.
